A Month of Wisdom

One question or small practice to think about

MON	TUE	WED	THU	FRI	SAT	SUN
			1 Ask yourself: what is in my control today?	2 Spend ten minutes deciding what you really need	3 Write what you would do if nobody judged you	4 Notice one thing you complain about and drop it for a day
5 Imagine today is a gift you may not get again	6 Do one thing slowly, as if it were a craft	7 Ask: what would a wise friend say about this worry?	8 Watch your thoughts for five minutes	9 Ask: will this matter in five years?	10 Pick one habit that shapes who you are becoming	11 Speak well of someone who is not present
12 Sit quietly and let your mind settle like muddy water	13 Write down one belief and ask what would change it	14 Do one thing today only because it is right	15 Name one thing you have more than enough of	16 See a hard day as training for a strong mind	17 Walk without a goal and see where you end up	18 Ask: am I acting from fear or from values?
19 Write down one thing beyond your control, then let it go	20 Choose your words with care in every conversation today	21 Listen more than you speak today	22 Spend an hour without comparing yourself to anyone	23 Do a task as if it were the only task in the world	24 Think of someone you wronged and write what to say	25 Ask: what is the smallest honest step I can take?
26 Accept one thing you cannot change today	27 Do someone a service with no wish to be thanked	28 Write down what you want to be remembered for	29 Look at a simple object as if for the first time	30 Write one lesson from this month in a single sentence
